

He is the Word of Life

1 John 1:1-4

The Background of 1 John

The Background of 1 John

- Who wrote it?

The Background of 1 John

- Who wrote it?
- Who was it written to?

The Background of 1 John

- Who wrote it?
- Who was it written to?
- Where was it written?

The Background of 1 John

- Who wrote it?
- Who was it written to?
- Where was it written?
- Why was it written?

The Authority of the Author

The Authority of the Author

v. 1

- He knows about Christ's beginning.
(Genesis 1:1 & John 1:1)

The Authority of the Author

v. 1

- He knows about Christ's beginning.
(Genesis 1:1 & John 1:1)
- He heard Christ teach.

The Authority of the Author

v. 1

- He knows about Christ's beginning.
(Genesis 1:1 & John 1:1)
- He heard Christ teach.
- He saw Christ in action.

The Authority of the Author

v. 1

- He knows about Christ's beginning.
(Genesis 1:1 & John 1:1)
- He heard Christ teach.
- He saw Christ in action.
- He watched Christ daily.

The Authority of the Author

v. 1

- He knows about Christ's beginning.
(Genesis 1:1 & John 1:1)
- He heard Christ teach.
- He saw Christ in action.
- He watched Christ daily.
- He served with Christ.

The Authority of Christ

The Authority of Christ

vv. 2-3

- Christ was revealed to mankind in flesh.

The Authority of Christ

vv. 2-3

- Christ was revealed to mankind in flesh.
- Christ is the source of eternal life.

The Authority of Christ

vv. 2-3

- Christ was revealed to mankind in flesh.
- Christ is the source of eternal life.
- Christ proved His deity to mankind.

The Authority of Christ

vv. 2-3

- Christ was revealed to mankind in flesh.
- Christ is the source of eternal life.
- Christ proved His deity to mankind.
- Christ is part of the Godhead. (John 1:1, John 10:30, “I and the Father are one”)

The Purpose of the Letter

The Purpose of the Letter

vv. 3-4

- The message is personal.

The Purpose of the Letter

vv. 3-4

- The message is personal.
- The message is centered around fellowship.

The Purpose of the Letter

vv. 3-4

- The message is personal.
- The message is centered around fellowship.
- The message is so that joy can be complete.

The Purpose of the Letter

vv. 3-4

- The message is personal.
- The message is centered around fellowship.
- The message is so that joy can be complete.
- John 15:11, “These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that my joy may be full.”

Questions to Consider

Questions to Consider

- How are you doing at sharing how Christ has impacted you?

Questions to Consider

- How are you doing at sharing how Christ has impacted you?
- Where do you need to grow at in your understanding of who God is?

Questions to Consider

- How are you doing at sharing how Christ has impacted you?
- Where do you need to grow at in your understanding of who God is?
- What does fellowship look like in your life?